

I highly oppose to banks or anyone else being able to contact my home. It has been wonderful not having telemarketers or others interrupting us all the time with their unwanted calls.